

Tim Dalpee, Section Manager, Operations, Bruce B Operations Support, Bruce Power

Tim Dalpee is the Fuel Handling Operations manager for the Bruce B Station at Bruce Power. Since 2008, he has been responsible for the Dry Fuel Storage, Heavy Water handling, Chemical Waste storage and Water Demineralization operations. He is also a member of the CSA N292 Radioactive Waste Management Technical Committee and has supported CSA standards development on Technical Sub Committees for N292.0, N292.1, N292.2 and N292.3.

Tim joined Bruce Power upon its establishment in 2001 as a System Engineer and worked in the Electrical section before moving to Operations.

Tim Dalpee has a Bachelor of Engineering Electrical, Lakehead University