

Monica Hammarström is the Director of International cooperation at SKB. She has been in the nuclear waste management business for more than 20 years. Her academic background is in geoscience.