

MINON, Jean-Paul

General manager

ONDRAF/NIRAS (Belgian Agency for Radioactive Waste and Enriched Fissile Materials)

Professional experience

Was successively inspecting engineer for the Energy Administration of the Ministerial Department of Economic Affairs (1978), consulting engineer on district heating (1979), nuclear power plants inspector of VINCOTTE (controlling organisation for the Belgian NPP's) from 1980 to 1989, head of the Health, Safety and Environmental Department, industrial and nuclear safety, at Belgoprocess, the subsidiary company of ONDRAF/NIRAS (1990-1993), deputy general manager of ONDRAF/NIRAS (Belgian radioactive waste management agency) from 1993 to 2003 and has been acting general manager of ONDRAF/NIRAS since 2003. He was appointed general manager of ONDRAF/NIRAS in June 2006.

He is also :

- a member of the Board of Belgoprocess;
- member and past chairman of EDRAM, International Association for Environmentally Safe Disposal of Radioactive Materials;
- vice-chairman of the Permanent Waste Group of the French nuclear Safety Authorities
- chairman of the RWMC (Radioactive Waste Management Committee, OECD/NEA)
- member of ENSREG (European Nuclear Safety Regulators Group)