

Biographical Summary

NAME: Dr. Joseph Muldoon

ORGANIZATION: Saskatchewan Research Council, Saskatoon, Saskatchewan, Canada

SHORT BACKGROUND FOR INTRODUCTION:

Dr. Muldoon has work experience with the Saskatchewan, Federal and Ontario Governments. His current position is Vice-President of the Environment Division at the Saskatchewan Research Council. Dr. Muldoon's background includes regulatory, policy and operational applications of environmental and resource management and conflict resolution. His education includes a Doctorate in Public Policy (with research on uranium mining), Masters of Business Administration and a Bachelor of Science.

Joe's work background includes:

- Assistant Deputy Minister, Environmental Program, Saskatchewan
- Senior Manager, Public Involvement and Aboriginal Affairs Branch, Saskatchewan
- Manager of the Great Lakes Sea Lamprey Program, under the auspices of the International Great Lakes Fisheries Commission, Ann Arbor, Michigan.